

HERE'S TO GREAT NEIGHBORHOODS

and the neighbors that make them great

---

HERE'S TO THE POWER OF ONE TO ONE

& eye contact, warm hellos, & shaking hands

Here's to meeting FACE-TO-FACE. Whether it's quick chats at the corner store or long conversations at home.

AND HERE IS TO SHARING A MEAL TOGETHER

Here's to agreeing that we won't agree on everything but that we can agree on a few important things.

Here's to honoring that regardless of our origins, our beliefs, or our different life experiences.

We know that everyone has something to offer — to this conversation, and this community.

Here's to listening with OPENNESS & LOVE. and asking questions to better understand one another — our unique struggles and dreams — with true respect and kindness.

Here's to believing we can build trust one conversation at a time. And to believing we can start right now.

---

Here's to welcoming one and all.
